

Strategies for Success with Ms. H.

Jennifer.halvorson@mpls.k12.mn.us

This course will focus on organizational skills specific to school and real-life situations as well as social emotional learning. Additionally, students in this class will spend time working directly on their IEP goals and having structured time and assistance to complete work for other classes.

Office Hours

5th hour

6th and 7th hour by appointment

General Expectations

-Come to class: We do a lot of hands on activities in this class that cannot always be made up outside of class. If you do not regularly attend class you will have a difficult time being successful.

-Participate in discussions and activities: Ask questions, answer questions, actively listen, work with others, complete your assignments.

-Do your best work: Do your own work and make it work that you are proud to turn in.

-Treat others with respect

- Ethical Practice- Academic Honesty

Students engaged in academic dishonesty will be penalized on the assignment, may be given the opportunity to resubmit the assignment for credit, and they will be reported to their dean for disciplinary action and Administration if applicable.

Academic Dishonesty includes, but is not limited to:

- cheating on assignments or tests
- plagiarizing (misrepresenting as one's own anything done by another)
- submitting the same or substantially similar papers or creative work for more than one course without consent of all instructors concerned.
 - depriving another of necessary course materials
 - sabotaging another's work
 - colluding to support malpractice by another student
- To avoid plagiarism, words and ideas used to support one's argument MUST be acknowledged in all journals, papers and presentations.

In our class, we will use the MLA citation style to cite our work. This will be covered in class. Passages that are quoted verbatim must be enclosed within quotation marks and the author must be acknowledged. Electronic media (websites, etc.) must be treated the same way as books and journals, and the sources of all photographs, maps, illustrations, etc. must also be acknowledged if not your own work.
